$369,190,259 Navy Appropriation Measure Reported

NO PROSPECT OF DECLINING COSTS SEEN

Bill Provides for Largest Sum Since Before Washington Arms Conference

BACK WILBUR'S STAND

Proposal Includes Money For New Construction, Modernization of Ships

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, March 21.—The house late today began consideration of the $369,000,000 naval appropriation bill.

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, March 21.—The largest expenditure for the naval establishment since before the Washington arms conference in 1922 is provided in the annual navy appropriation bill reported to the house today by its appropriations committee.

The amount, $369,190,259, includes funds for continuing construction on 10 vessels now being built; modernizing of two others, including gun elevation; beginning work on two new dirigibles; building two more submarine salvage vessels and additional airplanes, and maintaining the marine corps in its activities at home and on foreign fields in Nicaragua and China.

Upward Trend Seen
Pointing out this increased expenditure, the committee says further it can see "no prospect of declining naval costs in the immediate future," but that all indications "point to an appreciable upward trend."

The total of direct appropriations in the measure is only $20,000,000 more than provided last year, but with appropriations already authorized in the urgent deficiency bill at the outset of the session, the increase this year will be nearly $43,000,000.

This bill carries no funds for the new 16-ship program, but provides $48,000,000 for work upon vessels previously authorized—eight cruisers and two submarines. It provides for the construction of 10 new ships.

SANDINO AGAIN ESCAPES TRAP OF U. S. TROOPS

Marines Reach Rebel Base To Find Quarry Has Made Getaway

(By United Press)
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, March 21.—The wily Gen. Augustino Sandino, leader of the Nicaraguan rebels, again today was believed to have evaded a U. S. marine patrol.

Marine planes Monday bombed a rebel base near Murra, inflicting many casualties. The base was wide open. Ground forces were called.

But when the "devil dogs" arrived, bent on rounding up the stragglers, it was found that the base had been deserted.

The Sandino base was about 30 miles north of El Chipote. Monday, marine bombing planes made three attacks.

Reports here said the casualties had been greater than those of July, in October, when 300 rebels were killed.

Ground troops were sent in line.

HOUSE TAX SLASH PROPOSAL TO BE TAKEN UP ON APRIL 3

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The house tax reduction bill will be taken up by the senate finance committee April 3, Chairman Smoot announced to the senate today.

Smoot said the committee would then decide whether hearings should be held on the measure and would hear treasury department officials report the amounts of revenue received from the March 15 income tax payments.

Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, protested that the committee should meet earlier and asked Smoot to arrange it.

Smoot replied there was no doubt that a tax revision bill should be passed at this session of congress.

CAMPAIGNS IN MIDDLE WEST OVERSHADOWED BY SMITH AND LOWDEN NORTH DAKOTA GAINS

By C. C. NICOLET
United Press Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO, March 21.—Convention campaigns of presidential aspirants of both parties in the middle west were overshadowed today by definite gains of the Democratic candidacy of Gov. Al Smith and the Republican candidacy of Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, in the North Dakota primaries.

North Dakota Republicans pledged 13 votes in the national convention to Lowden, while the Democrats gave Smith North Dakota's 14 votes in the Democratic national convention.

The two candidates were unopposed and the total vote, considerably below normal, only registered the general apathy which has prevailed in the state.

Lowden Gets 2024 Votes, Smith 1673 In Dakota

BISMARCK, N. D., March 21.—Frank O. Lowden, Illinois, received 2024 votes for the Republican presidential nomination and Gov. Al Smith, New York, polled a total of 1673 for the Democratic nomination in 866 of North Dakota's 2042 precincts in Tuesday's election, returns revealed today.

A few scattered votes were cast for Herbert Hoover, Charles G. Dawes and President Coolidge in the Republican column and William G. McAdoo and Thomas J. Walsh on the Democratic ballot.

Accusations Are Declared 'Vile, Vicious' Ex-Secretary Wants To Tell All He Knows

Senate Told Allegations of Sinclair Contribution False, Unfair
Former Cabinet Member Informed He Can Live Only Six Months

BY PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, March 21.—Charges that Gov. Al Smith, of New York, received campaign contributions from Harry F. Sinclair, central figure in the Teapot Dome oil scandal, were denounced as "vile, vicious and unfounded" by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, at the opening of the senate today.

"The governor's letter to Senator Nye has shown conclusively how false and unfair were the charges made here in the senate," Copeland said.

"It shows what an upright, dependable and untarnished statesman Smith is."

Smith Reply Read
Copeland had Smith's reply to Nye read from the senate rostrum.

This brought an immediate sarcastic response from Senator Robinson, Republican, Indiana, who had joined with Chairman Nye of the senate Teapot Dome committee, Monday, in making the accusations against Smith.

Independent Republicans and Democrats were organizing a movement in the senate today to put through the Couzens resolution demanding resignation of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

Senator Couzens, Republican, Michigan, author of the resolution, announced to the United Press that he would consent to no substantial delay in action upon the matter and that he would not permit the resolution to be sidetracked if he could prevent it.

BOSTON, March 21.—The naval board of investigation today completed examination of the interior of the hull of the submarine S-4, where a majority of the crew of 40 men were believed to have lived for hours after the fatal crash off Provincetown.

The tiller room was the last compartment examined by the board and this afternoon the members will direct their attention to the exterior.

RADIO COMPROMISE ADOPTED BY HOUSE

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The house completed action on the new bill today by adopting the conference report compromising differences between original house and senate measures. The report now goes to the senate.

The measure as approved by the house continues the radio commission as chief administrative authority until Feb. 23, 1929, limits broadcasting licenses to three months and orders the commission as far as possible to make an equal distribution of broadcasting stations.

Coolidge Refuses Again

WASHINGTON, March 21.—President Coolidge, in reply to a resolution passed by the Republican state central committee of Wyoming, declined today to accede to the committee's wish that he be a candidate in 1928.

ENGINEER OF WATER BOARD ADMITS POSSIBLE MISTAKE IN CONSTRUCTION OF DAM

Aged Man Pitiful Figure as He Makes Appearance at Inquest; Envies Those Dead In Flood

VOICE TREMBLES; HANDS SHAKE

(By United Press)
LOS ANGELES, March 21.—"Something" was overlooked by the engineers who built the ill-fated St. Francis dam, William Mulholland, chief engineer of the Los Angeles water board, admitted at the coroner's inquest here today.

His voice shaking and his hands trembling, Mulholland made this statement as his only explanation for the disaster when asked if he could give any cause for the collapse of the mighty concrete structure which poured death and destruction into the Santa Clara valley.

"Apparently we overlooked something," Mulholland said to the question of Coroner Frank Nance. "It is very painful for me to say it. And the only ones I envy now are those who died in the flood."

AMERICAN GIRL IS SAVED FROM GALLOWS DEATH

Doris McDonald's Sentence Commuted to Life, But Husband Must Die

By JAMES R. KELLY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
MONTREAL, Que., March 21.—Doris McDonald faced a new life today—a life behind prison bars.

While her husband, George McDonald, must go to the gallows Friday for the murder of Adelard Bouchard, she has been saved that fate. In Ottawa, last night, her death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

The young American woman was in the women's prison here today, still preparing for her death. The commutation of sentence came suddenly. It had been rumored but there had been little basis for the rumor.

Prepared For Fate
In prayer she had prepared for the climb up the brilliantly painted gallows at Valley Field Friday to join her young husband in their last trust—one with death.

Now that trust is gone. Only George, the young Nova Scotia lad, will go to the gallows Friday morning. The official board in question did not give him a commutation of sentence.

Only this week an affidavit became public in which McDonald sought to spare his wife from death. The affidavit said she had no part in the killing of Bouchard; that a confession she made in Denver was wrong, and that he, alone, should be punished.

Lawyers Ask Leniency
Attorneys for Mrs. McDonald went to Ottawa with this affidavit. They presented it to the minister.

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, March 21.—Trapped in ambush, 35 rebels, including their leader, Miguel Gomez Loza, were killed by federal troops, according to a Guadalajara dispatch today to El Universal.

The federal column was reported to be pursuing a priest, Pedroza, who was said to be Gomez' right hand man.

COPELAND SAYS SMITH CHARGES ARE UNFOUNDED

Although Couzens cited numerous acts of the secretary in relation to his varied business holdings and tax cases tried in his department, the senator based his resolution primarily upon the fact that Mellon had concealed for four years the fact that Will Hays, former chairman of the Republican national committee, attempted in 1923 to get him to handle $50,000 of Liberty bonds Hays secured from Harry Sinclair, oil man, as a campaign contribution.

Delay Anticipated

Action on the Couzens resolution in the senate is expected to be delayed by Republicans for several days. It now lies on the senate table ready to be called up when the senate reaches a "morning hour"—meaning any day after the senate had taken an adjournment. Republicans can delay action on it by recessing each evening instead of adjourning. They also are expected to move to send it to a committee for informal burial if a vote appears imminent.

Couzens' feud with Mellon is of long standing. Five years ago they conducted a debate by letters, each condemning the attitude of the other concerning high surtax rates. Couzens wanted the surtaxes out deeply and Mellon wanted them retained.

More than a year ago Mellon authorized a suit against Couzens for collection of back taxes alleged to have been due on Couzens' sale of his Ford Motor company stock. The dispute still is pending.

Smith Denies Allegations In Letter To Nye

ALBANY, N. Y., March 21.—Gov. Al E. Smith has sent a letter to Senator Gerald P. Nye, who is conducting part of the Teapot Dome investigations, denying that Harry F. Sinclair, oil man, contributed to his campaign fund in 1920.

The letter: "My Dear Senator Nye: 'You are quoted in the daily papers this morning (March 20) as having said yesterday on the floor of the senate, I do understand that in the campaign of 1920, at which Governor Smith was elected, Mr. Sinclair was a very liberal contributor to his cause and that following the election he was made a member of the racing commission of the state of New York.'"

"Senator Robinson, of Indiana, made a similar statement. Your information, wherever you got it, is in every respect false and those statements were recklessly made."

No Sinclair Contribution
"A careful search of the official records, made at my request today, confirms my recollection that Mr. Sinclair never contributed to my campaign fund, either in 1920 or at any time that I ran for office; in fact I failed of election as governor in 1920 and Mr. Sinclair had been appointed to the racing commission months prior to that election, some four years before there was any thought of the oil scandal. A few months before the end of his term, early in 1925, I accepted his resignation.

"I do not propose that either you or Senator Robinson, of Indiana, shall escape public humiliation for the infamous insinuation you have made by your pretense of disclaiming desire to cast reflection on me or stating that your committee has no concern with the matter."

"Without Slightest Warrant"

"Without the slightest warrant, in fact, and with no basis whatever you both have made false statements from which you evidently calculated that the people would be misled into believing that I was in some way a beneficiary of the oil scandal.

"This, no doubt, is a Republican counsel of desperation to escape in some nature, the penalty for the disgraceful record of the Republican party in connection with the scandal.

"No such red herrings can be dragged across the trail. The complete baselessness of your demagogic slander has aroused the indignation with which I make this protest against your outrageous conduct."

"Very truly yours,
(Signed)
"ALFRED E. SMITH."

Understanding With Upham Denied By Marsh

WASHINGTON, March 21.—William Marsh, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, told the senate Teapot Dome committee today he had no understanding with the late Fred Upham, treasurer of the Republican national committee, to conceal campaign contributions. A sub-committee in Chicago had received testimony as to such an alleged agreement.

Marsh said the Democrats received no contributions he would desire to conceal or any "unusual" contributions.

"But every contribution in 1923 was unusual—they were so hard to get," he commented.

Upham's secretaries, Irl Hipsley and A. V. Leonard, had testified Upham had informed them he had a secret understanding with Marsh.

"There never was any such agreement nor conversation relating to such an agreement," Marsh said.

On Friendly Terms

"My relations with Upham were cordially friendly. I never was in his office in my life. Any time I met him we were in hotel lobbies and on the streets. All the contributions we received are matters of record. There weren't any contributions that we were unwilling to make public."

Marsh, treasurer of the Democratic committee from 1916 to 1924, said the party deficit for the 1920 campaign was $200,000 and the 1922 deficit was about the same.

Like the Republicans, the Democrats made strenuous efforts to clean up that deficit in 1923 before the 1924 presidential campaign, he said.

Marsh said he could not recall whether Harry Sinclair, oil magnate, had given any money to the Democrats, but again referred Nye to the record of receipts filed.

Harding Estate Possesses None Of Bonds, Report

ST. LOUIS, March 21.—The estate of the late President Harding possessed "none of the Continental Trading company Liberty bonds," William F. Allen, reporter of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, informed his paper from Marion, O., today.

Allen explained in a dispatch that an investigation of the records of the estate revealed none of the numbers of the Continental bonds.

"The records of the Harding estate are unusually complete and minute," he said.

Motion To Dismiss Blackmer Charge Denied

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Justice Frederick L. Siddons, of the District of Columbia supreme court, today overruled a motion of attorney for Harry M. Blackmer, missing Teapot Dome oil witness, for dismissal of contempt proceedings against the defendant and restoration of $100,000 worth of property seized from Blackmer pending settlement of the case.

Siddons' decision upheld the constitutionality of the Walsh act, which permits courts to subpoena a citizen of the United States living abroad.

He said: "It appears clear that the allegiance of a citizen of the United States, actually living in a foreign jurisdiction, includes the duty of obedience to the laws of the sovereignty to which the allegiance is due. Indeed, without such obedience, allegiance would be but an empty name."

Maryland Seeks To Oust Sinclair From Tracks

BALTIMORE, Md., March 21.—The Maryland racing commission last night asked owners of the race tracks at Laurel, Pimlico, Havre de Grace and Bowie to bar horses of Harry F. Sinclair, indicted oil multi-millionaire, because of his connection with the Teapot Dome oil case.

Sinclair's famous Ranococas stable has been represented at all large American tracks, as well as at Tijuana and Havana.

POSSIBILITY OF ERROR IN DAM IS ADMITTED

Mulholland denied that the water was muddy as it came from the junction of the masonry with the conglomerate on the west cliff.

"What does muddy water in such a case indicate," Coroner Nance asked.

"It indicates a bad condition," Mulholland replied, but he said that the water issuing from the leak was "clear as glass" and contained no particles of earth.

Both Coroner Nance and Deputy District Attorney Dennison questioned Mulholland closely concerning the foundation of the dam and the anchorage at the east and west ends.

Based On Bed Rock
"All of the dam was based on bed rock. The west end was anchored to conglomerate, the east end to schist. The bottom was on schist," Mulholland testified.

"We went down deeper for the foundation in the center of the dam than we did on the sides.

"There is no shale in the country as has been said. The east end was anchored to schist, which means slate. The west end was on conglomerate, which is a consolidation of materials shifted by water. It is made of rock, gravel and some sand. It is very firm and impervious.

"We carried the foundation into solid conglomerate on an average of 10 to 12 feet. That was on the west side. On the east side it is hard to say how far in we went. I couldn't estimate, but we made excavations," he testified.

Was Safely Anchored

"It surely was," Mulholland replied.

Mulholland said that nothing "we could have done, even if all the four gates had been opened, would have lowered the water more than an inch or two."

He insisted that the water that was running from the dam was clear, not muddy, and persistent cross examination on this point nettled the witness and he declared: "I am giving you all I know. I swear to God on my oath I am."

Frederick Ransom Named To Young's Commission

SACRAMENTO, March 21.—Governor Young today appointed Frederick L. Ransom, professor of geology of the California Institute of Technology, in Pasadena as the sixth member of the commission investigating the St. Francis dam disaster.

Professor Ransom is a graduate of the University of California and taught mineralogy at the university from 1893 to 1895. He was assistant professor of mineralogy at Harvard university in 1895 and 1897 and geologist with the U. S. geological survey in charge of sections of the western territory from 1900 to 1916. He has also taught and lectured in various universities and is author of a number of books and articles on geology.

76 Refugee Families Move Into Tent City

SANTA PAULA, March 21.—Seventy-six families of Santa Paula flood refugees moved into a tent city today from their quarters in a packing house.

The tents, borrowed from the armory here, have wooden floors and sides. Each tent is completely furnished. Other larger shelters are equipped with cooking equipment, shower baths and laundry conveniences.

The new quarters were established by the local relief committee housing division, of which J. H. Proctor, president of the chamber of commerce, is head.

San Fernando valley Kiwanis clubs aided in gathering the furnishings.

Scripps Guided Sons To Wealth, Letters Reveal

federal court found the plaintiff's counsel introducing many communications between father and sons in the effort to support the claim of Mrs. Scripps that her husband, the late James G. Scripps, was in partnership with his father, Counsel for Robert P. Scripps announced letters will be produced purporting to show no such partnership existed.

At once generous with his sons in the matter of huge salaries and stock allotments tendered them in his newspaper properties and at the same time warning that "charity in business is a bad thing," the elder Scripps is revealed in the documents presented as constantly adjuring against accepting something for nothing, at the same time assuring that he also would not accept anything for no return.

The constant urge that his boys develop independence of thought and action runs through his papers.

"No man should be under absolute control of his elder," he wrote, adding that this holds even if the elder happens to be the father. "A father shouldn't meddle too much in his business," after turning it over to his sons, he said.

Abhors 'Dead Hand'
"I abhor the idea of the 'dead hand' and consider control by the 'palsied hand' even more dangerous," was a thought advanced to stimulate the sons, James G. and John P. Scripps, to work to the end that he might "abdicate" from active direction of his newspapers.

His feeling that sons of a rich parent may well be severely handicapped in the constant realization that theirs will be a large inheritance led E. W. Scripps to lay down at one time to his boys both a warning and what was tantamount to a stipulation in their conduct of his business.

The warning: "Each child should always hold in view the possibility that the whole of his father's estate might be annihilated."

The stipulation: "Each child should make it his business (1) to secure his own independent fortune; (2) to secure an independent competence for his brothers and sisters; (3) care for the parental estate."

McDonald is in Bordeaux penitentiary at Valley Field.

BOYS' LEADERS OF SANTA ANA HOLD MEETING

With 54 men in attendance, the Y. M. C. A. training course for leaders of boys' groups made a splendid start last night on the series of four meetings to be held on successive Tuesday evenings.

An address by Dr. George A. Warner on "The Challenge of Leadership" provided the opening for the course.

The group technique was handled by L. R. McMullen for the older boys' leaders, by T. P. McKee for the Pioneer leaders, and by C. L. Chaffee for the younger boys, or Friendly Indian leaders.

The attendance represented the following churches: Christian, United Brethren, Evangelical, United Presbyterian, First M. E. Congregational, First Baptist, Spurgeon Memorial Methodist.

It is announced by T. P. McKee, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for boys' work, that others are expected to be present next Tuesday evening, and that the enrollment will probably reach about 70 men, all of whom are either leaders, committeemen, or prospective leaders in boys' work.

The course of training is being provided by the Y. M. C. A. Boys' Work committee, of which J. A. Cranston is chairman, and is open without any charge to all men who are interested in leading boys' groups, or in teaching boys' classes in Sunday schools.

LEON WHITSELL ADDRESSES JOINT MEETING OF ROTARY AND EXCHANGE CLUBS HERE

"Dirt farmers" in the past 15 years have placed more constructive legislation in federal and state constitutions than any other body in the United States, Leon Whitsell, chairman of the railroad commission, declared in opening his address yesterday at a joint meeting of the Santa Ana Exchange and Rotary clubs at St. Ann's inn.

The declaration was a little bit aside from the subject the commission was to discuss, and was the result of a jocular remark by Dr. A. H. Domann, of Orange, that he thought the meeting was to be addressed by a "dirt farmer" instead of a politician.

Whitsell formerly was a member of the Orange county board of supervisors, representing the Orange district, and owns valuable ranch property near Orange. "I am a dirt farmer and I am proud of it," Whitsell said.

The commissioner then took up the subject, "Regulation of Utilities in California." He presented briefly some of the early history in connection with development of the idea of control, giving the grange, an organization of farmers, credit for early activities that influenced legislation later. Regulation of utilities by the state was given its first judicial sanction by the supreme court of the United States in 1876, in decision of a case known as Munn vs. Illinois, Whitsell pointed out.

Act of Legislature
Commenting on the fact that the question is often asked why the body he heads is called the "railroad commission" when less than 20 per cent of its activities have to do with railroad matters, Whitsell said that it was the 1912 utilities act which gave the commission jurisdiction over public utilities in the state. The act established the name, he said.

"The commission is composed of men appointed by the governor for a term of six years," the speaker said. "It has eight examiners and eight departments, the largest being the engineering department, consisting of transportation, gas and electricity, hydraulic, telephone and telegraph and valuation divisions. The rate department has 260,000 schedules on file, and the utilities under jurisdiction of the commission number approximately 1800, among them being 432 water companies, 144 telephone and telegraph companies, 99 inland water carriers, 420 warehousemen, 31 electric railways, 67 steam railroads, 59 electric light and power companies, 19 gas companies, 5 airplane carriers, 12 express companies and over 700 bus and truck lines.

"The commission has jurisdiction over rates, service, finances, facilities and extensions of all public utilities in the state, with the exception of the municipally owned utilities."

Declaring that a utility is entitled to a fair return upon a fair value of the property used and useful in the public service, and that the consumer is entitled to a rate the service is reasonably worth to the consumer, the commissioner emphasized the fact that investors in utility securities have greater confidence in such paper by reason of the commission endorsement.

the price of fuel oil from which gas is made."

The commissioner stressed the point that the commission is easily approached, and that it is ready to hear the complaint of the humblest citizen. "The poor man comes in the same door and is given the same consideration and time as the rich man," Whitsell commented in emphasizing this fact.

The speaker said that delays that occur in the rendering of a decision is due to the fact that each commissioner acts independently in arriving at a decision on any question submitted. He pointed out that in many instances it is necessary for each commissioner to read hundreds of pages of transcript and make personal investigation of points involved in order to reach a conclusion.

Eugene Douglas, president of the Exchange club, and W. C. Jerome, president of the Rotary club, presided at times, each taking care of business concerning his own club. The attendance was large.

RAYMER SAYS SANTA ANA HAS EXCELLENT CHANCE TO LAND GOVERNMENT DIRIGIBLE BASE

If the navy department decides to locate a dirigible base on the Pacific coast, and if the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company decides to establish a plant in Southern California, Santa Ana will have an excellent chance for obtaining both. There is no possibility for securing location here of a plant to manufacture two dirigibles the government contemplates and the factory will be located either in Baltimore, Md., or Akron, Ohio.

These were the definite statements of George Raymer, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, during a recital at the first meeting of the chamber membership at St. Ann's last night of his investigation of the possibility of securing a dirigible base and the factory will be located either in Baltimore, Md., or Akron, Ohio.

The secretary gave in detail many of the interesting incidents of his visit to the national capital, New York, Pittsburgh, Chicago and Akron. He was accompanied on his Washington trip by James Archibald, war correspondent, who was a member of the delegation sent by the Santa Ana Chamber.

To Visit Here
Recounting that Secretary of the Navy Wilbur is a Los Angeles man, and that Rear Admiral Moffett had visited in Santa Ana and had been over the site on the Irvine ranch proposed as a site for the base, Raymer said he had the assurance of further personal inspection of the site in June or July by the secretary and the admiral.

The secretary said the admiral had indicated he would come to the be established on the Pacific coast.

Declaring that a 40-acre tract on the Irvine ranch, near the head of Newport bay, is virtually the only available site in Southern California that meets requirements of the Pittsburgh Glass company, the secretary said he felt confident that the plant would be located near this city if the management finally decides on locating in Southern California. Investigations in the east, he said, had revealed to him the situation more or less responsible for failure of successful operation of the American Standard Glass company's factory here.

Cost Too High
In substance, it is the high cost of materials, the costs here being higher than at inland points, and the low tariff on imported glass.

Declaring that glass manufacturers are asking for 40 per cent increase in tariff rates, the secretary said it was probable the group would have to be content with a 14 or 15 per cent increase, as this represents approximately the spread between wages in this country and wages in Belgium and other foreign countries shipping this product to the United States.

Asserting that the salvation of the local glass plant and other similar plants operating in the southland lies in quantity buying by the entire group, Raymer said that a meeting of glass manufacturers in the south will be held Friday at the Alexandria hotel, Los Angeles, at which plans will be discussed for group buying of raw materials.

In concluding his address, Raymer said that Washington and the east are not for Hoover for president.

Expenses of Raymer and Archibald were reported at $1432.04, leaving a balance of $200.89 in the fund raised to send the emissaries to Washington.

FLOOD VICTIM BURIED HERE THIS MORNING

With the burial in Fairhaven cemetery this morning of Corita Holmslaw, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Holmslaw, the seventh victim of the St. Francis dam disaster was laid to rest in the "Silent City" here.

Services for the children were conducted at the Smith and Tut-hill chapel at 10:30 a. m. today, with the Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating. Songs were rendered by Cecil Willits, accompanied by Miss Ruth Armstrong.

Double services were held at the same place at 2:30 p. m. yesterday, for Mrs. Sarah Whitehead and her daughter, Mrs. Mary C. Holt. The services were conducted by Adjutant Carroll, of the Salvation Army, the two women having been members of the army here when Adjutant Carroll was in charge of the local corps some years ago. He is now located in Los Angeles. Four of the five children surviving Mrs. Whitehead were present at the funeral services. A daughter residing at Seattle was unable to be present.

Services were held yesterday morning for A. T. Kennedy, the Rev. R. W. Harlow, of the United Brethren church, officiating. Burial of the bodies of Mr. Kennedy's wife and two children was made a few years ago.

Inquiry of the Farmers and Merchants Saving bank here revealed to a Los Angeles deputy sheriff that a little bank found in debris in the flooded area belonged to Corita Holmslaw.

L. A. BANK BANDITS ESCAPE WITH $5000

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Three bandits, a Negro and two white men, held up the Citizens' Trust and Savings bank branch, at 1151 North Western avenue, shortly before noon today and escaped with approximately $5000.

The trio forced eight employees and three customers to lie down on the floor. While the holdup was in progress, H. W. Brown, manager, who had been absent from the bank, returned and, seeing that a holdup was in progress, ran to a telephone and notified police.

The bandits escaped in an automobile.

DISARMAMENT PLAN OF SOVIET SCORED BY U. S.

BY HENRY WOOD

United Press Staff Correspondent
 GENEVA, March 21.—After six days of silence the U. S. joined today with six other nations in calling the Soviet program for immediate abolition of all armaments impractical.

Hugh S. Gibson, U. S. ambassador in Brussels, expressed the conviction that a treaty for the outlawry of war, such as Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg has proposed, would be of greater value now in promoting peace than any project of complete disarmament.

Gibson, the American delegate, said the United States would support fully a multi-lateral project for non-aggression and outlawry of war treaties, but could not logically and sincerely support any project which would abolish all armaments immediately.

In making this statement, he found himself in line with the expressions of chief delegates from England, France, Italy, Japan, Holland and Sweden.

With this statement, Hennings, of Sweden, was in complete accord.

The most direct and emphatic objection came from Lord Cushendun, of England, who, using plain, plucky language, charged the Soviets had tried to sabotage the league, had tried to foment civil war in every nation of Europe.

With seven nations opposed to immediate action and to the thesis that immediate complete disarmament is possible, the Soviet government finds itself supported only by Germany and Turkey.

LEGION DANCE FOR SUFFERERS TO BE FRIDAY

The sale of tickets for the Santa Ana post, American Legion's dance to be held at the Legion home on Birch street Friday night for the benefit of the sufferers of the Santa Clara valley flood, last week, are selling even better than expected. It was announced today and the success of the dance from a financial standpoint is assured, according to Jay Connett, chairman of the post's emergency committee, which has charge of the dance arrangements.

TO RELIEVE STOMACH DILATION

Dilation of the stomach usually arises because excess stomach acid causes food to ferment and form sour gases which are responsible for those unpleasant sensations of swelling and fullness, often very painful. To avoid and relieve stomach dilation take a tablet of "Pape's Diapiesin" after meals or when pain is felt. "Pape's Diapiesin" neutralizes acidity and prevents the formation of wind, heartburn and flatulence, and insures healthy, painless digestion.

Druggists everywhere sell "Pape's Diapiesin" at 60 cents a package—not much to pay for complete freedom from digestive pain and stomach troubles. Is it? Better get your package of "Pape's Diapiesin" today. Adv.

the dance and everything needed, including two orchestras, flood lights, special entertainment and printing has been donated the post.

The West Coast-Walker theater orchestra, through the courtesy of the Musicians' Protective Association and the Concordia Association, of Balboa, will furnish the music. The ball room orchestra from Balboa will open the dance at 8:30 p. m. and the theater orchestra will come in at 9:30. After that time the music will be continuous.

The vaudeville is being donated through the courtesy of Charles Walker, manager of the West Coast Walker theater, who will bring his entire bill to the Legion home for entertainment. It was announced.

Connett announced today that the money derived from the dance would be sent to the Ventura post of the American Legion for relief work, the Ventura post having been assigned as the American Legion post to take charge of this kind of work in the flood area. In case the American Red Cross sends out an appeal to the Santa Ana chapter, the money will then be turned over to T. E. Stephenson, chairman here, it was declared. Stephenson said today he did not know whether such a call would come or not.

At St. John, motion picture star, will be present as one of the entertainers, Connett announced today.

JULIA LATHROP

Assembly Program
The regular Julia Lathrop student body assembly was held March 19. After singing two songs the Glee clubs presented the student body with a beautiful silk flag, which was accepted by Ralph Gordon, student body president.

Barbara Allen gave a reading "The Blarney Stone." Joy Best sang "The Little Irish Girl." A selection "The Giant Causeway" was read by Dorothy Gantner, followed by an Irish poem recited by Elaine DeVries. Jeannette Roby and Frankie McDonald danced a clever tap and clog dance. The Irish program closed with several selections given by the Harmonica club.

Wins Track Meet
Julia Lathrop won first place in the Orange county track meet with 86 1-2 points. Tustin won 44 1-6 points, Anaheim 32 1-3 points, Huntington Beach 27 points, and Willard 81-2 points.

New Club
Miss Calkins, Julia Lathrop librarian, has organized a library training club, to which any Julia Lathrop students may belong.

Club Gift
The Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs have presented the school with several gifts. Monday a beautiful silk flag was given to the student body. Seven pictures belonging to the school were framed by the Glee clubs and are now decorating the halls. They bought two new pictures for the Girls' rest room, also.

New Pupils
New pupils who have recently come to Lathrop are: Mary Wilson and Virginia Wilson, Huntington Beach; Opal Wilson, Montano; James Lewis and Hadley Lewis, San Diego; Mabel Harrison, Burbank; Nettie Gallego, San Fernando; Frances Jean Nichols, San Diego; Oran Smith, Fullerton.

LOWELL

Last Tuesday was fathers' night, with a very nice program. The Glee club sang three songs, the kindergarten band played. There was a quartette and many other things.

There were also many exhibits on display. Dorothy McGurgan, Lowell school has been having a W. C. T. U. contest. Each student wrote an essay on beer, wine and cigarettes, and their harmful effects. Prizes were given to the winners.

The winners were: fourth grade, Marcelles Rossier; fifth grade, Alice Butka; sixth grade, Jeanne Siddoway. Monroe Robinson, Lowell school girls in the fifth and sixth grades are playing basketball. Our referee is Miss Wilson. We all think that basketball is fun.

Gwendolyn Griffin
Thursday morning we studied about trees. The reason we should take care of the trees is that the people who are to live after us may have the different kinds of trees to study and enjoy, just as we have. So everybody should be careful not to throw a match where it might start a forest fire and do much damage.

Mildred Veale.
Lowell P. T. A. was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. P. Cruzen. The meeting was opened by singing one of the P. T. A. songs, with Miss Pugh at the piano.

Children of the first and second grades gave two very interesting numbers, singing "The Postman" and the Ballroom song, followed by the Glee club, the fifth and sixth grades, singing "My Golden California," "Santa Lucia," and "Naples," in a very pleasing manner. The quartet from the Cantando club gave two very fine numbers. Those in the quartet were J. H. Hughes, Mr. Beaudett, Mr. James Nuckolls and Clarence Ranney.

Mr. Stewart, instructor in public speaking in junior college, gave a wonderful talk on "Making the Most of the Gift of Gab." It was very interesting. He chose that subject as it was fathers' night. There were many fathers present to hear it. Also a large number of mothers and young people.

Basketball

Saturday, March 10, was a red letter day for the boys' basketball team. In the afternoon their physical director, Miss Lindsay, took them to the movies. Following this they went to the home of the captain, Lewis Wetherell. Here they were joined by their coach, Willard White. Croquet was enjoyed for a time, but soon gave place to a delicious supper.

After supper all joined in games. During the evening the boys were very happy to present Mr. White with a little token of appreciation. When the parting hour came the boys all united in expressing their gratitude to their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Wetherell. Altogether it had been an occasion they would long remember.

Art Department
Next week the art department is having an exhibit of the work done by the pupils during the year. In connection with this a splendid collection of pictures and fabrics will be shown on Thursday afternoon and evening to the public by a Los Angeles exhibitor.

FRANCES WILLARD

Social Law Club
A monthly meeting of the Social Law club was held last Monday night. This club is sponsored by Mr. Read. The officers are as follows:

President, Charles Lowell; vice president, Kenneth Byrd; secretary, Bill Gibbs; reporter, Martha Wallingford. After the parliamentary drill the club enjoyed several interesting games. The guest of honor for the evening was Miss Wilma Plavan. The members voted to have pins as representative emblems of their club.

Willard Welfare Club
The Willard Welfare club held its meeting last Wednesday in the school banquet room where the girls enjoyed an entertaining program. Marguerite Leitz, formerly of Willard school, was the guest of honor and responded graciously with a short speech when introduced to the members. The program consisted of a St. Patrick's game which proved very interesting.

Assembly Entertainment
The 41 class, under the direction of Miss Anita Summers, gave the student body an interesting entertainment last Friday when the members had charge of the weekly assembly program. The announcer was John England.

The first number on the program was a song, "Sweet Miss Mary," with the following pupils taking part: Erma Leigh Fernandez, Equequal Chavez, Winifred Ball, Ella Pleiss, Marlan Brownridge, Beth Flippen, Jack McCarty and Tommy Blakeman. The second number on the program was a piano solo by Ella Pleiss. Next was an Irish jig by Mary and Alene Fitzpatrick, accompanied on the piano by their sister, Lillian Fitzpatrick. A humorous play entitled "The Willing Performers," proved most amusing to the audience. The cast was as follows: Willard Elliott and Armond Faccau, musicians; Richard Gardner, the suitor; Louise Bach, "Myrtle," the attractive young lady; Ruth Crowl, the maid; Zola Tannenbaum, mother; Frank Musselman, father.

New Students
During the last week two students have transferred from Lathrop to Willard. Wilma Rice has entered the high 7th grade and Opal Smith has entered the low 9th.

Special Announcement
There are still quite a number of Willard students who have not made up their grades of 4 from last quarter. If these grades are not made up by March 30 the students will not be given any further chance and will have to repeat the course in which they have received the grade of 4. The students are to see Mrs. Thatcher at once.

Willard Service Club
The boys of the Willard Service club enjoyed a snappy meeting at their weekly luncheon in the banquet room. George Munroe presided and it was "joke day."

Works All Day, Stays Up Late, Gains 5 Lbs.
"It's easy for me to do a full day's work and stay up late nights since taking Vinol. My weight has increased 5 pounds."—Earl Dunlap.

Vinol is a delicious compound of cod liver peptone, iron, etc., Nervous, easily tired, anemic people are surprised how Vinol gives new pep, sound sleep and a BIG appetite. The very FIRST bottle often adds several pounds weight to thin children or adults. Tastes delicious. C. S. Kelley, druggist.—Adv.

WILL PRESENT THE SHOW-OFF THREE NIGHTS

The Santa Ana Community Players today are preparing to score what they believe will be another success tomorrow night when they present "The Show-Off" for the first time to a local audience.

As the eve of the performance approaches, actors, stage hands, scene artists and all those connected with the production are concentrating on the last minute task of assuring the community that it will see a polished performance at the Temple theater, according to Miss Norma Wingood, business manager of the group.

Charles C. Brisco is destined to make a decided hit, she declared, as he emerges from his former work of producing lighting effects to take position on the stage for the first time in his career. Brisco has been in charge of the stage crews for several seasons, but will present the character of Pa Fisher in the coming play. He has an outspoken wife, two daughters and a son to contend with, Miss Wingood remarked, and predicted that he will have plenty to do. He also is stage manager of "The Show-Off."

Assisting with the multitudinous duties of getting "The Show-Off" ready for production are numerous ous committees which have been working diligently for weeks. The costume committee under the chairmanship of Miss Ruth Rowland consists of Mrs. William Spurgeon and Miss Mabel Whiting. Theirs the work of arranging the apparel of the actors and seeing that it is all in order and ready when needed.

"The scenery committee under Eleanor M. Harnois consists of Pearl Gamblin, Frances Battey, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson, Mrs. Frank Lansdown, Helen Battey, Vera Morrison and Helen Bows. Some new sets will be shown in "The Show-Off" made for this play and, as in former plays, will demonstrate the ability of this committee," Miss Wingood said.

"The properties committee under the chairmanship of Julia B. Cummings and consisting of Verna Wellington, Thomas Glenn, Doris Robbins and Mona Summers Smith, has been busy for many days gathering up the articles used in the scenes."

36 Hollywood directors say: Smooth, exquisite skin is woman's most alluring charm

In the luxurious bathrooms of great stars and in the dressing rooms of the big film companies this soap cares for the skin of the most beautiful women in the world.

"A star has to have the smoothest skin in the world—make-up shows so in the close-up. I keep my skin like satin by using Lux Toilet Soap."

Vera Reynolds

Smooth skin essential—a statement representative of leading directors

"The most appealing single beauty a girl can have is certainly exquisitely lovely skin. A screen star, to survive the merciless lights of the close up that permit of practically no make up, must have rarely beautiful skin—'studio skin'. The beauty of her skin distinguishes every star I know."

The close-up is the cruellest test a woman's skin can meet . . .

Nothing is more important to a girl than lovely skin. A screen star especially must have rarely exquisite skin, 'Studio Skin.' I take the greatest care of mine—I always use Lux Toilet Soap for it keeps my skin so beautifully smooth that the close-up is no ordeal."

Mary Pickford

Smooth, exquisite skin is essential for popularity, leading motion picture directors declare.

Every star in Hollywood knows that smooth, velvety skin means even more to her than it does to most women—it means her very career. How she guards it! Nine out of ten screen stars use Lux Toilet Soap!

It cares for their skin the true French way. For this lovely, white, fragrant soap is made by the method France developed and uses for her finest toilet soaps.

And the great film companies, following their stars' example, have made Lux Toilet Soap the official soap in their studio dressing rooms. Beauty is important in Hollywood!

You, too, will be delighted with the velvety bloom of your skin when Lux Toilet Soap cares for it. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

HAL COX HEADS ELLIS' BOXING SHOW TONIGHT

Pacific Coast Champ Goes Against Jack Venerable At Delhi Amateur Club

TONIGHT'S CARD
Main Event—Hal Cox vs. Jack Venerable, 165 pounds.
Semi-windup—Art Palmes vs. Jimmy Olivis, 126 pounds.
Preliminaries—Jack Slater vs. Ed. Bazl, 110 pounds; Billy Collins vs. Eddie Benson, 145 pounds; Bob Stevens vs. Alex Dezas, 135 pounds; C. Hernandez vs. Jimmy Alvarado, 126 pounds.

BY RINGSIDER
Boyd Ellis, the Tex Rickard of Santa Ana, parades another motley array of "amateurs" to the post at his Delhi arena tonight and he believes on the current card he has the best feature offerings he has yet displayed at the barn. "Members" of the club are expected to pay their "dues" with reckless abandon this eve.

Hal Cox, the light heavyweight who has been spotting the big boys anywhere from 10 to 40 pounds and knocking their ears off at Delhi, gets another main event by popular acclaim. His opponent this trip is listed as Jack Venerable, former San Francisco simon-pure who comes to the town of the Saints with an enviable reputation as a puncher and a skilful boxer. He will have to be get away from Cox who won the Pacific Coast amateur championship at 165 pounds in the recent tournament at the Los Angeles Athletic club.

The other half of Ellis' pride and joy is the semi-good which ushers in those two good and rugged little chaps, Art Palmer and Jimmy Olivis, who have established quite a following among the "barn" folk. They are swift, hard-hitting youngsters and their managers think both are going somewhere in the break-breaking profession. They will come in at 126 pounds.

The feature preliminary matches Ed Bazl and Jack Slater, the same lads who recently did everything but known down the house in an effort to floor each other for the count of ten. Delhi has seldom seen such a slugger as that which these little gunners put on.

Three other encounters are on the card, which gets under way at 8:30 o'clock. Eddie Benson and C. Hernandez, both of Anaheim, and Bob Stevens, of San Juan Capistrano, are among the participants.

ARNE SOUMINEN HAS TIME LEAD IN PYLE DERBY

HOLBROOK, Ariz., March 21.—With Arne Souminen, Detroit runner, holding the time advantage, athletes in the C. C. Pyle cross continent "Bunlon Derby" today started out on a jaunt of 39 miles to Navajo, the next control station.

Payne suffered a fever. He expected to do better today, he said. While Payne was trailing, Souminen, a Finn, went into the lead in total time elapsed. He placed seventh yesterday's run and went to the top with a mark of 106 hours and 59 seconds for the 608.8 miles between Los Angeles and Holbrook.

Earl Lin Dilks, New Castle, Pa., athlete, showed a burst of speed yesterday and trotted into Holbrook from Winslow to take first place for the 17th lap of the Los Angeles-New York race. Dilks made the 34.3 miles in 5:12, making his elapsed time 127:56:40.

Harold Breeding, Santa Ana's premier miler, may submit to an operation to correct a spinal ailment which has bothered him since his childhood and if he does he will not run again this year, he said today.

The ailment has bothered him for many years but more so since he fell heavily to the ground while playing in junior high school.

If the Santa Ana is operated on this year it will mean he will give up all hope of making the American Olympic Games team.

LATHROP TAKES MIDGET MEET FROM WILLARD

The midget track team from Julia C. Lathrop junior high school won a decisive 47 to 7 victory over the Frances E. Willard team yesterday afternoon on the Willard track. This is the first of the series of four track meets that will take place between the two schools during the next four days.

The senior meet and the final one for both schools will be held Friday afternoon after which the relays for the midget, junior, intermediate, and senior meets will be run off on the high school track.

That school which makes the largest number of points during the four meets will be presented with the large Neal-Dyas trophy, now in the possession of Lathrop.

During the course of yesterday's meet, four midget track records went by the boards. Pico started it off when he broke his own high jump mark at 4 feet, 5 inches. His Orange county record is 4 feet, 7 inches. Pico and Sorenson both broke the broad jump record with a leap of 14 feet, 4 inches to tie for first place. Vanderbilt, started everyone when he cleared 8 feet in the pole vault to set a new record and Bove heaved the 8-pound shot 28 feet, 7 1/2 inches for the final mark of the day.

Lathrop won every first place on the program and lost only one second place and one third place to their North Main street rivals. The results:

- 50 yard dash—Vanderbilt (L) first, Sorenson (L) second, Bove (L) third, Myer (W) fourth. Time, 7 2/5 sec.
- High jump—Pico (L) first, Willard (L) second, Vanderbilt (L) third, Maret (L) fourth. Height, 4 feet, 5 inches.
- Broad jump—Pico (L) first, Sorenson (L) tied for first, Bove (L) third, Velarde (W) fourth. Distance, 14 feet, 4 inches.
- Shot put—Bove (L) first, Willard (W) second, Pico (L) third, Conrad (L) fourth. Distance, 25 feet, 7 1/2 inches.
- Pole vault—Vanderbilt (L) first, Pico (L) second, Houston (W) third, Gerner (L) fourth. Height, 8 feet.

ANDERSON DEFEATS PHIL KRUG IN L. A.

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Joe Anderson, of Covington, Ky., outfought the veteran Phil Krug, of New Jersey, to win a 10-round decision in the feature bout at the Olympic auditorium here last night.

In the other two 10-rounders Walcott Langford got the call over Bert Colima, of Whittier, on a foul in the fifth round, and Mike Watters knocked out Eddie White in the seventh frame.

Anderson took five rounds to Krug's two. The younger man had too much speed and dash some clever punching and won for Krug. Anderson displayed some clever punchwork and won easily.

Colima had the better of Langford up to the time the Negro was given the bout on a foul, a verdict which proved unpopular.

'Doc' Wright To Join Club Today

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Wayne ("Doc") Wright, right-handed pitcher who has been a mainstay with the Los Angeles club for several seasons, will join that club here today.

Hooks and Slides

While it proved of no value in Gene Tunney, the recent heavy-bringing out a suitable opponent for weight elimination tournament conducted by Tex Rickard might be taken as evidence that boxing at least has its honest moments.

Rickard made no secret among his friends of the fact that he would prefer to have Jack Sharkey in the ring for one of the summer bouts that Tunney has demanded and that he would rather have any other challenger than Tom Heeney or Johnny Risko, but they turned out to be the winners if there were any winners.

Those who think that all of Rickard's big championship shows are the result of shrewd pre-arrangement believe that he is a power who can do any business he wants with the fighters. But if he ever did have any influence it didn't work for him this winter.

He figured after the Chicago fight last summer that the heavy-weight championship battle this year would be worth about $30,000, 000 at the gate. But he hasn't a challenger now who would be sure to furnish a million-dollar show.

WELL, LOOK WHAT'S HERE!!!

"Give us a little attention," the footballers are clamoring for the big colleges where squads are being called out for spring practice. While the rookie ball players are being looked over in the south, the track athletes are warming up for the Olympic trials and the golf bugs are shining clubs, the football candidates are doing their stuff just as briskly. In the picture above, two of the candidates for Northwestern's varsity squad are running down a path of boxes. The stunt is supposed to teach them how to shift.

COLLEGE BOXER FARRELL TAKES LA GORGE OPEN GOLF TOURNEY

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Phillip Bromley, 19-year-old University of Southern California amateur boxer, was held on suspicion of manslaughter today after Michael Carnakis, 21, of Bakersfield, had been fatally injured in a bout between the two at the school.

Carnakis died last night, six hours after he had been awarded the decision over his schoolmate in a 145-pound intra-mural match.

A new break in and old depressed skull fracture of the frontal bone caused his death, physicians said.

Both youths collapsed in the fourth round, but Carnakis went to the floor last and was awarded the title for which he paid with his life.

The report of the ambulance attendants that two men, who purported to be in charge of the ring, refused to allow them to remove Carnakis when they first called was being investigated. It was not until the ambulance made a second run to the school that the attendants were allowed to take the youth to the hospital, they said. School athletic officials denied they had interfered.

Rosales Battles Mitchell Tonight

WILMINGTON, Calif., March 21.—Rosa Rosales, El Paso Mexican, and Leo Mitchell meet in a six round main event here tonight. Billy Lane and Tony Tovar, middleweights, will be seen in the six-round semi-windup.

Trojans Defeat U. C. Baseballers

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—University of Southern California went into the lead in the California Intercollegiate Baseball league yesterday by defeating the University of California tossers from Berkeley, 9 to 5.

LOCAL COLLEGE IS INVITED TO FRESNO'S MEET

Ten of the best athletes of the Santa Ana junior college cinderpath squad, coached Bill Cook, will enter the West Coast relay meet to be held April 28 in cooperation with the California Raisin day festival at Fresno, it was learned today.

The invitation of the Raisin Festival association to compete was received yesterday and Coach Cook is preparing to make entry.

Santa Ana junior college will be in the Class B division where the athletes will be pitted against the representatives of other colleges and junior colleges of the state. In several of the events, Coach Cook has figured that the Santa Ana athletes will pile up points.

A team of distance runners will probably be entered in the four-man two-mile relay. Other events in which Santa Ana will be strong are the 100 yard dash in which Maurice Guyer and Russell Hind will probably compete, the 100 yard hurdles with Gerald Twiss entered, the pole vault and discus entered by Roscoe Bradbury, the high jump with Robert Jacques and the javelin with Blanchard Beatty and Spencer Stewart.

Because the meet does not come until nearly a month after the close of the regular Southern California junior college track schedule, Coach Cook intends to conduct special workouts and elimination trials to pick the ten men who will probably make the trip.

Expenses of the trip will be paid by the Raisin association.

Watchers are being offered as the first place winners and to the members of winning relay teams. Sterling silver and bronze medals will go to the second and third places. Loving cups will be up for the institutions in the university class, the college class and the high school class, that win the meet.

TUNNEY REPLIES TO GOTHAM ULTIMATUM

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 21.—Johnny Farrell, Mamaroneck, N. Y., won the La Gorce $15,000 Open Golf tournament because he dared where Bobby Cruikshank hesitated.

Farrell had a scorching 30-33-63, eight under par, on the last 18 holes of the 72 hole tournament for a total of 274, two strokes ahead of Cruikshank, who lost because he played conservative golf.

The Scot, who was out in 30 elected to stick to par coming in, believing he had won the tournament. Gene Sarazen, who had led through the first 54, broke going out, taking a 39 and Cruikshank decided to hold an eight stroke lead to win. He was in in 36 for a 68 and 276 total.

Farrell's game in the final round was featured by six birdies and an eagle. He used wooden clubs where an older player would have used irons and was up to the pin on every approach.

Sarazen, out of the running with his 39 came in with a 35, but was forced to take fifth place. Joe Kirkwood finished ahead of him with a 279 and Harry Hampton was fourth with 282.

on the TRAIL of BIG LEAGUERS

TAMPA, Fla.—The Washington Senators went out today to make it two in a row over the Brooklyn Robins. Hopkins and Griffin were slated to hurl for the Senators.

AVON PARK, Fla.—The St. Louis Cardinals today boasted a percentage of 77 in the Florida Grapefruit league, having won seven games and lost two.

NEW ORLEANS.—Despite a denial by Billy Evans, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, rumors persisted here today that the Indians are after Bill Hufferfeld, Chicago White Sox infielder.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—Physicians today assured Outfielder Hank Mahan of the St. Louis Browns that his arm was well on the road to recovery and that his playing would not be hindered as a result of the injury.

WINTERHAVEN, Fla.—The Phillies faced the Reading International league club here today.

AVOLON, CATALINA ISLAND.—The Chicago Cubs neared the end of their spring training season. The National leaguers go to the mainland Friday for a series of games with Hollywood and Los Angeles and have other heavy bookings to follow.

GENE'S KNOCKOUT?

Caroline Bishop, Los Angeles beauty, may or may not be Gene Tunney's fiancée. Both she and the champion deny any betrothal and claim only "casual friendship," but they were very much together in Florida recently. At any rate, she's a knockout for class.

TILDEN SHOWS PRACTICE NEED DURING MATCH

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 21.—A series of matches between teams A and B, was scheduled for the American Davis cup tennis team competitors today with Captain William T. Tilden anxious to get a better line on the aspiring players.

Tilden and Arnold Jones, ranking No. 6 player met John Hennessy and George Lott in a significant doubles match yesterday which showed Tilden in need of practice. Tilden and Jones won 3-6, 6-1, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4, but "Big Bill" was erratic.

George Lott, Chicago, will meet Tilden in one of the first singles elimination matches.

Francis Hunter, second ranking tennis player in the United States, will not be on the United States Davis cup team to go to Mexico City, Joseph Wear, American Lawn Tennis association president, told the United Press today.

Wear said it was desirable to give the younger players an opportunity in big matches and Hunter would not be included on the team.

SPORTSMATTER

BY FRANK GETTY
UNITED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

The prospects for a sweep of American victories in the current year of widespread international sport competition are none too bright. Accustomed as we are to considering the United States supreme in athletic endeavor, the year 1928 may produce some shocks.

In tennis, the United States already has lost all the worth-while prizes and has only a faint hope of regaining them this year. The selection of candidates for the American Davis cup team, which is to practice this week under the captaincy of "Big Bill" Tilden is indicative of French superiority on the courts. Those upon whom Uncle Sam must draw for his Davis cup challenge do not stack up, for real tennis class, against LaCoste, Cochet, Borotra, Brugnon, Boussus and the other French stars.

In golf, the British are likely to get back their open championship, for Bobby Jones announces that he will not defend it, and Bobby, after all, represents just about the margin of American supremacy on the links. A team of British amateurs is coming to this country to compete for the Walker Cup, and this will be the most important international test as far as golf is concerned.

The championship of the Olympic games, which will be held in Amsterdam late in July, seems fairly safe for our own particular democracy. In all-around athletics, the United States has an imposing weight of numbers, and the best the other nations hope for this year is second place.

At that, the prospective American triumph is diminished somewhat by the fact that our athletes have not done well lately in the running events which naturally are the feature of the Olympic Games. In 1924, at Paris, American athletes won but one race for individuals. Jackson V. Scholz of the New York A. C. won the 200 metres dash, but the other sprints, middle distance and distance runs went to representatives of rival nations.

The British did extraordinarily well in these events, Abrahams winning the 100, Liddell the 400, and Lowe the 800. The Finns, Nurmi, Ritola and Stenroos attended to the rest.

The indoor track season, just closed, has not produced any particular grounds for optimism as far as running is concerned. Lloyd Hahn alone has been able to break records and show promise of Olympic victory. And Hahn is going up against the stiffest competition of all of Amsterdam, and may have to tackle the job without the benefit of sufficient time to become acclimated.

American sprinters have not distinguished themselves this winter. Karl Wildermuth of Georgetown was about the most consistent in the East. Jimmy Quinn of Holy Cross equalled a world's record and showed his heels to the best of them in one New York meet, but Quinn seems to be an in-and-outer who cannot be counted on. Jackson Scholz is finding the effort of "coming back" a trying one. In the West, Paddeco and Draper have done well and are Olympic prospects.

As far as distance running is concerned, the United States seems to have given up hope. Even C. C. Pyle's cross-country run seems to be controlled by foreign plodders.

Tennis, golf and track do not by any means represent the extent of international competition this year. Already the Norwegians have skated off with all the honors on the ice and snow. There will be boating, fencing, fighting, swimming and what not. At boxing, the United States certainly is best and our amateurs should come back with most of the prizes. Otherwise, there is no great likelihood of an American sweep.

YOUTHFUL BANDIT HOLDS UP STATION

Armed with a long revolver, a youthful bandit early last night held up the service station operated at South Main and Russell streets, and after forcing T. C. Morgan, the proprietor, to lie down on the floor, became frightened when Morgan yelled and ran away without taking anything, according to a report filed with the city police.

Morgan told police that he was just closing the station for the night and had turned out the lights when the man stepped in the front door, pistol in hand. "Lay down on the floor, quick," the holdup man demanded.

Morgan laid down, but at the same time, yelled twice. Several automobiles were passing along the street in front of the store. The bandit turned and disappeared in the darkness.

Four Wrestlers Elimination In Series Tonight

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Four wrestlers are billed at the Olympic auditorium tonight in the first two elimination bouts to select an opponent to meet Ed ("Strangler") Lewis, world's heavy weight mat champion, in a title bout here next month.

Nick Lutze, of Chicago, is favored to beat Jim Brownings, of Kansas City in a best two out of three falls bout. In the other half of the double bill Jack Washburn, of Oklahoma, is picked to toss Tommy Draak, the "flying Dutchman."

NOT MUCH HOPE IN BOSTON
Boston fans have not much hope of seeing the Red Sox come out of the cellar this season, although Bill Carrigan is sure to have his youngsters hustling every day.

ATWOOD WELLS READY TO GO ON PRODUCTION

ATWOOD, March 21.—Two wells will be placed on production in Atwood this week by the Union Oil company. Both wells are in proven territory and are expected to be good producers. Chapman No. 26 was finished at 4750 feet and has 470 feet of perforated tubing in it. Stern No. 11, in the Richfield flats on the west side of Van Buren street, was completed at 4624 feet and the oil string is being run in. This should be at least a 300-barrel producer if it comes up to others in the vicinity.

Stern No. 12 is drilling at 4595 feet in oil sand. Y. L. G. No. 17 is being cleaned out at 2005 feet. Stern No. 53 is drilling in brown shale and oil sand at 4500 feet. Y. L. G. No. 15 was put on production, making 50 barrels a day. As the oil was 12.9 degrees gravity, with a 90 per cent cut, the well will be cleaned out again.

One new well, Morse No. 8, was spudded in last week and is drilling at 719 feet.

CYPRESS

CYPRESS, March 21.—The wildcat well at Cypress is below 8000 feet. Gas pockets have been struck. It is reported.

The Cypress Co-operative club gave a dinner and social affair for their ladies at the Holly grill Friday night, 43 being present. The Blue Bird orchestra from Long Beach furnished the evening's program of music. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hawley of Anaheim, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Orr, of El Monte, Mr. and Mrs. Emmott Whitaker of Los Angeles, were among the prominent out of town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Orr and daughter, of El Monte, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Layton. G. G. Priddy and his cousin, Mr. Harter, a well known hardware man of Hollywood, took a hunting trip into the desert over the weekend.

Stanley Gaston and Ed Cook went as far as the Newhall tunnel Sunday.

Davis M. Wallace, petroleum geologist of Los Angeles, visited Cypress Monday, looking over the few unleased ranches in the vicinity of the Miller well.

Excavation for the H. LaRue block was started yesterday.

Ernie Velarde sandwiched in a pair of second places in the sprints between his first place in the broad jump which, as usual, he won on his last jump. Dick Barber, Long Beach's ace in the pits competition, got off one leap of 23 feet, 7 inches but fell back and it cost him a league record.

One of the best races of the meet was the mile in which the improving Tom Donahue of Santa Ana was barely nosed out in driving finish by little Art Miller of the visitors. The time was 4:47 and a fraction and Donahue was under 4:48. The Santa Ana's effort was a fine one.

Hearn, Reboin Tie
"Doc" Hearn, returning to his pole after almost a month's absence with injuries, cleared 11 feet to tie with his teammate, Reboin, for first place in the vault.

Jimmy Musick threw the discus 118 feet for a second place and "Reg" Rust put the shot 44 feet, 2 inches but he, too, was forced to take second. Moffat was second in the high jump and Art Jacques shared a tie for third.

After nabbing third in the shot, Joe Warner forced Captain Childreth of Long Beach to run 51.1 in the 440 to beat him to the tape. Warner has been coming along so fast that he is expected to be down near 50 flat by the end of the year.

TWO WOMEN IN CITY COUNCIL RACE APRIL 9

With time for filing election petitions closed, candidates for various municipal offices in Orange county are anxiously waiting for April 9. Outside of Newport Beach and Huntington Beach little competition is expected.

12 MEN, WOMAN IN LAGUNA BEACH RACE

LAGUNA BEACH, March 21.—One woman and 12 men have filed their petitions for places on the ballot as candidates for the city council. Only one, Frank E. Champion, is now in office. The woman aspirant is Dr. Frances E. Callister.

Those who filed petitions are John Arscott, Carl E. Benson, Frank S. Browne, Dr. Frances E. Callister, Frank E. Champion, X. R. Clapp, R. D. Lippincott, John F. McLaughlin, Dr. B. B. Mason, W. W. Riddell, Joseph S. Thurston, George Wilson and Perry Warren.

Riddell and Mason were candidates at the time the city was incorporated, and the latter is president of the chamber of commerce and a member of the Laguna Beach sanitary district.

Only the petition of G. W. Prior, incumbent, is in for the position of city clerk. Judge Thomas B. Stephenson and Verner F. Rush have filed as candidates for treasurer. That position is now held by James B. Neel.

Members of the present council are Thomas A. Cummings, Mayor; John L. Brinkley, Frank B. Champion, Joseph R. Jarhaus and George S. Johnston.

WOMAN SEEK PLACE ON SEAL BEACH BOARD

SEAL BEACH, March 21.—Three candidates for the city council filed papers with the city clerk yesterday to succeed J. P. Tranter and A. E. Walker, retiring councilmen. In the group was the first woman to aspire for that position in the annals of Seal Beach, Mrs. Jessie W. Reed. The other two were Elmer J. Hughes and Henry W. Snider, the term of office being for four years.

Mrs. Ollie B. Padrick, who has held office as city clerk since August 2, 1925, is a candidate again and Mrs. Jennie P. Hilliker seeks the same position. Mrs. Padrick was appointed to succeed B. B. Brown in August of 1923, when Mr. Brown retired from office to assume his duties as postmaster of Seal Beach. At the municipal election in April, 1924, Mrs. Padrick was elected again for the term of four years.

Ira E. Patterson, candidate to succeed himself as city treasurer, was appointed in July, 1922, to succeed Mrs. Sadie C. Bailey, and elected to the same office in April of 1924 for four years. Mr. Patterson also held the same office from April, 1918, to April, 1920.

Other candidates for the same position are Mrs. Joe E. Stewart and Miss Elsie McClelland.

SIX SEEK COUNCIL POSITIONS IN BREA

BREA, March 21.—Records of the city clerk here show that at noon yesterday, the last hour available for such action, six residents of Brea had signified their intention of allowing their names to appear as candidates for city council on the ballot of the coming city election. They are Charles E. Miller, Frank Stewart, Ted Craig and J. A. Luezing, the latter chairman of the present board, candidates for the long term of four years, and Kenneth E. Sutcliffe and O. R. Meissner, candidates for the term of two years.

Two vacancies are to be filled in the city board with the retirement of Isaac Craig and W. A. Hall.

FAMILY HAS 10 STUDENTS IN 9 SCHOOL GRADES

ORANGE, March 21.—When little Albert Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark, of West Palmyra avenue, steps into the kindergarten room of the West Orange school, his brothers and a sister are answering roll call in every grade of the same school.

There is a member of the same family in each grade of the schools of Orange up to the sophomore year of the high school with the exception of the seventh grade in the intermediate school and to make up this deficiency, two of the Clark boys are in the eighth grade of that school.

In the freshman year of the high school are to be found two more of the Clark boys, Donald and Duncan, twins, and the oldest of the 11 children. These two have kept side by side all of their school life, rather unusual, according to educators.

Besides the 10 children in school, there is one of the two girls, Rosamund, who is as yet too young to attend. The family is the second generation to grow up on the Clark ranch.

A. B. Clark, the founder of the family, was one of the pioneer orange grovers of the state. He was the engineer who planned the S. A. V. I. system and was the first president of the association.

Among the treasured possessions of the Clark family is the history of the early days in Orange, written by Mrs. A. B. Clark, (Mary T. Clark) which tells of the vicissitudes when they came, fresh from eastern universities, to live the life of pioneers in the far west.

Mr. Clark was a graduate of Yale and Mrs. Clark of Vassar and the story of the orange industry from its earliest stages is told in the chronicle of the grandmother of the 11 Clark children.

PROPOSED LAW ON BATHING SUITS HIT BY MERCHANTS; LAGUNANS SIGN PETITIONS

LAGUNA BEACH, March 21.—Opposition to the proposed bathing suit law, which was read for the first time before the city council a week ago, has developed. The Merchants' association will commence today circulating petitions among business men to obtain the names of those against the enactment of the ordinance.

Members of the Woman's club, in a recent meeting, advocated the passing of an ordinance which would be substantially the same as those in cities west and south of here, and through their action prevailed on two members of the council to vote for the law. But business men in yesterday's meeting pointed out that the business of some of their members might be substantially harmed, while transient places of business would be benefited accordingly.

John Jehle asserted that the artists are not in favor of the ordinance, and Dr. L. F. Mallow stated that he had talked with a great many citizens, professional people and business men and had found none disposed to favor the ordinance.

LIGHTING PLAN ABANDONED BY CITY COUNCIL

FULLERTON, March 21.—By action of the city council at its regular meeting last night, the district lighting assessment plan will be abandoned and the cost of maintenance of lights will come from the general budget. This move by the councilmen was taken following protests by property owners in the lighting districts affected. Councilman Bert Annin was the only councilman to vote against the action. Petitions of 47 per cent of property owners were presented against the district plan.

As explained by Councilman W. J. Carmichael, an appropriation will have to be made from the general budget to care for lighting maintenance in the future, as in the past only a part of the lights could be lighted at all times because of the lack of finances appropriated for lighting.

Two bids were let for the construction of two bridges over barn ranches in Fullerton, one on North Richman avenue, and one at the Brea-Fullerton roads. The total cost for the bridges will be $17,322.04. R. B. Carey and W. B. Potter, local contractors, were awarded the contract for the Richman avenue bridge, their bid amounting to $6,338.96. The Mercereau Bridge and Construction company, Los Angeles, was awarded the contract for the Brea-Fullerton road bridge, which amounted to $10,983.08.

A contribution of $100 was made to the Boulder dam association in the interest of the proposed Boulder dam. W. M. Coulter, of Fullerton, and John W. Scott, of Imperial, representatives of the association, were present and told the necessity for funds.

It was pointed out that Fullerton and Orange county will benefit by the dam project.

Action was delayed on the appeal of the city planning commission of Fullerton for an appropriation of $3600 to be used by the commission in preparing data and other work for the first year of the operation of the commission.

I. R. Doncaster asked for permits to erect a portable ice cream stand at corner of Almond and Main, the structure to be 12 by 12, and an ice cream factory 100 feet east on the lot facing on Almond street. The permits were granted.

Residents of North Cambridge street were granted permission to put in a water main for 1700 feet to connect with the city mains at Collins avenue. This line will serve the families of H. Z. Sawyer, Alvin Stanfield, Hollis Shewalter, J. V. Shoemaker and H. H. Herman.

WATER MAIN FOR STREET IN LAGUNA

LAGUNA BEACH, March 21.—First action in the improvement of Forest avenue following the setting back of buildings for widening, is the laying of a water main, completing the plans of the Laguna Beach county water district as originally set forth for its main distribution.

The main was not put in at the time others were as the knowledge that Forest avenue was to be torn up led to the decision to wait until the improvement work was about to start. Opening of the bid a week ago has caused action to be taken at this time. A fire plug will be set at the corner of First and Forest.

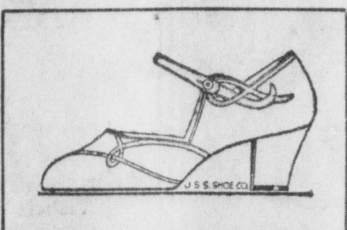

Plans have been made by Roy Peacock, Elmer E. Jahraus, Walter Rankin and others to set back their buildings, and work has already started on the Rankin structure.

Dinner Guests Enjoy Bridge Contest in Swanner Home

Dinner at 7 o'clock followed by an evening of bridge, was the pleasant fashion in which Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Swanner of 2341 Bonnie Brae, chose to entertain a little group of friends last night in their home.

Mrs. Swanner seated her guests at two tables, each centered with pastel tinted sweet peas, with tall dinner tapers harmonizing with the variety of colors. Dainty spring maidens served as place cards, and details of china, silver and crystal, added to the ornamental effect. Places were indicated for the hosts, and for Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Swindle of Long Beach, Miss Myrtle Vencil, Mrs. Emmett Elliott and Dr. C. A. Ahrens of Artesia.

Tally cards distributed for bridge, rounded a literary note and such celebrities as Mary Roberts Rinehart and Arnold Bennett, or Edith Wharton and John Galsworthy, played together in turn until each feminine guest had played opposite each of the men of the party. Home-made candy and salted nuts were served throughout the evening.

Mrs. Swanner's springtime motif was again apparent in her gift wrappings, the ribbons showing the combined pastel colors. A handsome set in Italian cutwork was presented Mrs. Elliott, and an Italian towel to Miss Vencil. A quaint picture in Spanish style rewarded Mr. Jensen, and a tin of cigarettes fell to the lot of Dr. Ahrens. The latter is head of the Emergency hospital in Artesia and only recently returned from post-graduate work in Vienna.

Silver Is the Gift For Brides

A woman's greatest joy is to entertain—if she has beautiful things to show! Therefore, if you wish to be pleasantly remembered, give something in silver! Then it will be thanks to you that she has that lovely sugar and creamer, those graceful candlesticks, that rich looking salver, or those adorable salt and pepper shakers! Pieces of this kind can be purchased reasonably here. And there's a wide range for choice. Come in and see them.

The WOMAN'S DAY by ALLENE SUMNER

Business women are unreliable, says some critic. They only work as long as they feel like it, or it is personally necessary, and take time off or quit to take a trip or a rest or write a book whenever they can swing it, regardless of what happens to the employer or his business. If they do, and I guess they do, it's probably because they can. A man would if he could, but he generally has too many dependents. He works on, not through any more loyalty to the business, but because of personal necessity.

HOME BUILDERS

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Wood of Miami Beach, Florida, have lived for three years in a little home-made 25x9 house under the jack-knife bridge which Mr. Wood tends. They don't mind the surging traffic overhead, nor the water just 18 inches below their porch, nor the considerable publicity given their shower bath on the back porch.

This is the old story of home-making. One's own home, planned and built by oneself, is home anywhere and forever. Just try budging the Woods, and see what happens!

FATHERS AND DAUGHTERS

The father and daughter theme, so much hashed and reshaped by the psychoanalysts these days, finds expression in Berthe Mellett's "The Ellington Brat." Mrs. Mellett admits that Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and his daughter Allie gave her the idea, though her plot is not at all biographical. "These two are the father and daughter plot in essence," she writes me. "Just to see them together starts me speculating. I like them both. I feel that they both like each other better than they like the rest of the world. The love between a girl and her father is as liable to just as much frenzied jerking and hauling and man-handling as more hackneyed bonds."

"PETTING"

"Petting" is utterly necessary if a girl is ever to have more than one date with the same boy, according to co-eds of the University of Iowa in a recent questionnaire, and, no doubt, according to co-eds everywhere. Why is it that, despite all our modernists who prattle about the casualness of caresses, etc., this

THE TINYMITES STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KNICK

(Read The Story, Then Color The Picture)

"You're right!" the jelly man replied. "You guessed the first time that you tried. I am the fat old jelly man. Now tell me, who are you? If you are lady who act real good, and always do the things you should, I'll treat you fine and show you lots of fun before I'm through."

"We're Tinymites," weep Coppy said. The jelly man just shook his head. "I never heard of you before. What are you doing here? Some people come, I understand, to steal the cakes in Baker Land. If that is what you're here for we cannot be friends, I fear."

"Oh, ho!" cried Scouty, very loud. "We Tinymites are much too proud to even steal one little thing. We know that stealing's wrong. Why, we have seen nice cakes galore, and though we know what cakes are for, we've always passed them by and left them right where they belong."

Just then the baker man appeared. Of course the Tinymites were cheered. "These Tinymites are friends of mine," he very loudly cried. "They're always glad to lend a hand in work that's done in Baker Land. Don't be afraid. I am the one who let them come inside."

"Oh, well that's different. I am sure. The judgment that I used was poor," exclaimed the funny jelly man. "Come on, you Tinymites. Although you've seen a lot, no doubt, together we will walk about and I am sure that I can show you lots of other sights." Then, pretty soon, he said, "We'll make a dandy little jelly cake. The cake is here and so am I. 'Twill be an easy trick." So petting question looms as large as in the days when no "nice girl" kissed a man until she was engaged to him? Can it be there is some protective instinct that even reason cannot remove?

MENUS for the Family

BY SISTER MARY

BREAKFAST—Sections of grape fruit, eggs scrambled with rice, crisp broiled bacon, graham and raisin muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Baked potatoes, creamed salmon, sliced hot house tomatoes, luncheon sticks, milk tea.

DINNER—Frenched pork tenderloin, apple sauce, mashed yellow turnips, baked corn, grape juice sponge, milk, coffee.

No cereal is included in the breakfast menu and unless small children whose breakfast consists of cereal are present at the table a cereal is not necessary. Rice and the muffins take care of the nutrients usually furnished by "porridge."

Luncheon Sticks

Four tablespoons butter, 3-4 cup light brown sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, 1-4 cup finely chopped nut meats, few grains salt.

Melt butter in a smooth sauce pan. Add sugar and heat over a low fire, stirring constantly. When thoroughly blended remove from heat and let cool. Add unbeaten egg and beat mixture hard. Sift flour, salt and baking powder and add to first mixture. Mix well and add nuts and vanilla. Spread the mixture in a shallow square pan lined with parafin paper and bake thirty minutes in a moderate oven. Remove from pan and let cool. Then cut in narrow strips and serve.

The melting of the sugar with the butter gives a delicious flavor to these little sticks.

EAT AT THE THEATER

WEST COAST-WALKER

One of New York's most famous night clubs was reproduced on an elaborate scale at the studios as a setting for "The Big City," Lon Chaney's new vehicle now playing at the West Coast-Walker theater. The club is practically a replica of the famous tavern of Texas Guinan, actress and night club hostess, who startled the metropolis with her daring innovations. The club, with spectacular ballet and other features, was used as the scene for a thrilling hold-up in the new picture, in which Chaney plays a gangster leader.

GUATEMALA IN STRICT RULING ON PRESIDENCY

By V. R. BETETA
United Press Special Correspondent

GUATEMALA CITY, March 21.—Guatemala's new constitution prohibits the re-election of presidents within 12 years after the expiration of their first term.

The regulations governing presidential re-election are the most advanced of any Latin American republic, the framers of this new constitution having preferred to make drastic rules rather than to risk turning control of the state over to a self-perpetuating regime.

Another constitutional principle adopted establishes the nation's ownership of subsoil oils or minerals, and prohibits the alienation of such natural wealth. Others amplify the states' functions as protector of individual rights, authorizing it to engage actively in work tending to foster national and private wealth, to fight illiteracy, promote sanitation, and settle labor troubles.

Holding prisoners without communication with their friends is forbidden, and the greatest latitude is declared for rights of habeas corpus.

Making into a fundamental law one of the most important stipulations of the 1928 Washington conference, the new constitution forbids the head of a revolutionary movement, coup d'etat or other armed uprising from becoming president during the presidential term in which order was disturbed or the following term.

Those who have held high military command or been secretary of state in the 'de facto' regime are also prohibited from being presidential candidates, as is the vice-president or first designate. Finally, the secretary of state serving at election time or six months beforehand, cannot be elected president.

Monopolies and privileges of all kinds are abolished. Concessions new industries cannot exceed a period of 10 years, and congress has effective control on all matters referring to concessions, international loans or the national budget.

Government employees, except those in university work, cannot be elected to congress; and army officers are also barred unless they are working under the orders of the executive or the judiciary. Soldiers are not allowed to vote.

Maximum independence has been given to the judiciary. Articles forbidding re-election of the president can only be amended by a two-thirds vote in two consecutive legislatures, and no amendment can be made effective until six years after its adoption.

RACING TAKES MORAL LEADERSHIP

The Maryland Racing Commission has announced that no horse owned or run under the name of Harry F. Sinclair as owner shall be permitted to start in any race held under the leading racing associations of America. The reason for this as given by the commission is the relation of Mr. Sinclair to the Teapot Dome scandal and investigation.

Horse-racing has never been considered a Sunday school sport but it has been conducted always with a high degree of honor compared with the conduct of the Teapot Dome Oil affair. We wonder if the racing commission would bar horses that might be owned by Will Hays from entering a race of the association. If they did take such ground it is mighty fortunate for Will and his employers that this horse-racing commission does not constitute a board of censors for the movies, or Will would lose his job instantly. In the meantime, we will have to be grateful to this commission for being the first organization to definitely suggest that there is a standard of right and wrong in this thing. Of course Borah is endeavoring to have the party establish such a standard. Up until this episode we thought it had such a standing. We wonder at the reluctance and tardiness of the leaders to come out and express themselves.

WILL COSTA MESA FAVOR ITSELF?

A Costa Mesa man who is endeavoring to stir up opposition to uniting with Santa Ana used as an argument in a letter in Saturday's paper the following:

"There is no assurance that annexation means Harbor development. Published statements that 'Santa Ana leaders' have promised that a harbor bond election will be called at once after annexation mean nothing unless the so-called leaders are persons in authority."

This is a sample of the character of opposition progressive movements encounter.

No leaders in authority either in Santa Ana or Costa Mesa, as far as we have heard, have ever declared there would be an immediate bond election after annexation. There has never been such a suggestion, as far as we know, coming from any reliable authority. We doubt seriously if those who are using this think there is any authority for that statement, but they make it rather for the purpose of opposing and appearing to make an argument against the annexationists. The import of this statement by the writer is entirely false and does the whole cause of the harbor and of Costa Mesa and Santa Ana great injury just in proportion as the people believe the sentiment it would express.

There are two classes of people in Santa Ana. There are those who believe that the development of the harbor, the dredging of the channel, are most valuable assets to Orange county and Santa Ana. They believe that progress points in this direction. They worked for the bond issue at the time it was before the county, and voted for it. These people almost without exception are for the annexation of Costa Mesa with Santa Ana. They feel that the harbor is so valuable, its development so important, that they desire its challenge to be placed more squarely before the city of Santa Ana and under circumstances where Santa Ana will be even more friendly toward it than it has ever been, and she has always had a majority of her citizens favoring it. These people believe that the Costa Mesans of course will pay for the harbor and with the vote of the Costa Mesans joined to this group there will be a big majority in favor of Santa Ana doing her fair share in harbor development and improvement. Not only so, but Santa Ana would border on the bay and the bay problems would be her problems.

There was another group that did not feel so. For one reason and another they were opposed to the bond issue. Some of them because they did not believe the amount sufficient or adequate, others because they are opposed to anything that looks like additions to taxation, regardless of what the money is used for. They have small investments in the city. Possibly nothing more than their homes. Their income is fairly well fixed and they are not interested in important or future development. There are these two distinct classes in Santa Ana. This last class of which we are speaking undoubtedly are rather opposed to the annexation of Costa Mesa. They are contented with things as they are. They do not want change, they are not looking for new responsibility. They are the ones who will oppose any bond issue in the future, whether from Santa Ana or otherwise. The people of Costa Mesa who are opposing annexation are really the champions of this group in Santa Ana who are opposed to harbor improvement and the bond issues. They are hoping here that the anti-annexationists will win. They are pleased over every fault that is found with the plan of those who are looking toward unity and toward future development.

The friends of harbor improvement are finding in this group of obstructionists an element of discouragement which those interested in Costa Mesa and the harbor should help to remove, for, let it be known, that harbor improvement like any other improvement on a big scale must come from unified effort. This combination of bringing into Santa Ana, and cementing it with the city, the group who could be profited the most by harbor improvement will aid in such harbor improvement with the highest degree of certainty. The consolidation of interests that are affected would insure, and it is the one thing that would insure, the consummation of the hopes of the harbor improvement people. We cannot believe it possible that the opponents of annexation in Costa Mesa realize the significance of a vote against annexation under these conditions. It would encourage the enemies of all improvement and discourage its friends. A hostile vote would be construed to mean, and it would mean, that Costa Mesa had not joined with the friends of development of the harbor in Santa Ana but with its enemies. And as a matter of fact we are certain that this is just exactly what the group who are leading the fight against annexation desire to have it mean, for they said to us that they did not expect anything to be done for the harbor by the larger interests in the county until after the dam in the Santa Ana canyon had been built. They said this is the way the people felt about it and they were acting on this hypothesis.

We do not agree with this thought at all. We are distinctly for the conservation of our water. We are for the dam. The work of surveying and obtaining information is progressing in that direction. We do not know how long it will take. It may be years before that question is settled. In the meantime, and all the time, we are for the dam and we are also for the development of the harbor. We believe that this is the position of the great body of citizens of Costa Mesa and we shall believe it until their vote is cast. If they follow the leadership of those who are giving aid and comfort to the enemies of harbor development, we will of course have to conclude that we were mistaken and any responsibility that we might feel toward aiding in that direction would be avoided as far as Costa Mesa is concerned. We are not saying this because we believe it is impossible. We are saying it because we believe it is impossible. We believe that the wisdom and common sense of the people of Costa Mesa will assert itself and they will favor annexation.

BOULDER DAM BILL COMING TO A VOTE

We are glad that the Boulder Dam bill is now in the open and there will soon be a record vote. We will know then where the members of our national lawmaking body stands. There has undoubtedly been a tremendous effort to defeat the bill and unquestionably interests that were back of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce have been operating, though more quietly in other states. It is necessary for an issue to be made and a line-up to be seen in order that a real contest can be carried on.

There is no doubt but there are many men who are honestly and sincerely opposed to this bill, or bills of like character. But neither is there any doubt that the insidious lobby referred to by President Coolidge has been working overtime against this measure. There is no insidious lobby working for it. There is a reason for both.

CHANGE FOR A MATE

Nancy Ann Miller became a convert or at least a communicant of one of the religions of the Hindus as a preliminary to her marriage to the Maharajah of Indore. The only reason this news is that it is not often done and the bridegroom is a potentate. Plenty of men and women in America change religions to get a mate, but it is not news.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

BROTHERLY FRANKNESS

Matilda is a pretty girl, just going on sixteen. John Henry, her brother, is nineteen. They have spats, daily spats. John Henry thinks Matilda is putting on silly airs when she writes her name with an "e" at the end and an accent over the "e."

"But you couldn't pronounce it. Well go ahead. Let's hear you. No. You won't because you can't."

"John Henry, let your sister alone."

"Yes, of course. Why don't you stop her making a fool of herself? Matilda, when everybody knows her name is Matilda. She can't get a decent mark in French but she turns her name into French. Only word she knows and I'll bet on it."

The next day Matilda comes to table wearing a dress that boasts of its simplicity. It is little more than a slip, no sleeves, no collar, scant skirt, daintily tilted. John Henry gives his sister a long hard stare and then says sweetly, "Didn't you forget something?"

"No I didn't, you mind your own business."

"You're my business. Seems to me before I'd show myself off I'd have something to show. You're skinny-legged, knock-kneed, pigeon-toed—everything. Before you powder your face until it looks like raspberry pie why don't you wash it? Soap and water's much cheaper than paint and powder and doesn't raise such a fine mess of pimples."

"Mother?" calls Matilda in agonized appeal.

"John Henry, be ashamed of yourself."

"I'm telling her what the other fellows think and don't say except behind their backs. They think the fellows fall for them when they make such shows of themselves and I'm here to say they don't. Why don't you make her go upstairs and dress herself like a regular person? She can't go to school looking like that."

"Who's going to school? I'm going to a show. The class is going to a show with the teacher, you know so much."

"Your class doesn't need to go to any show. You're show enough without—"

"Silence, John. Not another word. And you Matilda, go right up stairs and wash your face and put on your blue dress, the one with the white cuffs and collar. I'm not pleased with your brother's way of checking you but there's truth in what he is telling you. He doesn't want people to think wrong of you. He wants his sister to be a little better than he is in dress and manners. So do I. Now like a good girl change your dress. I don't like that one on you at all. It doesn't do you credit."

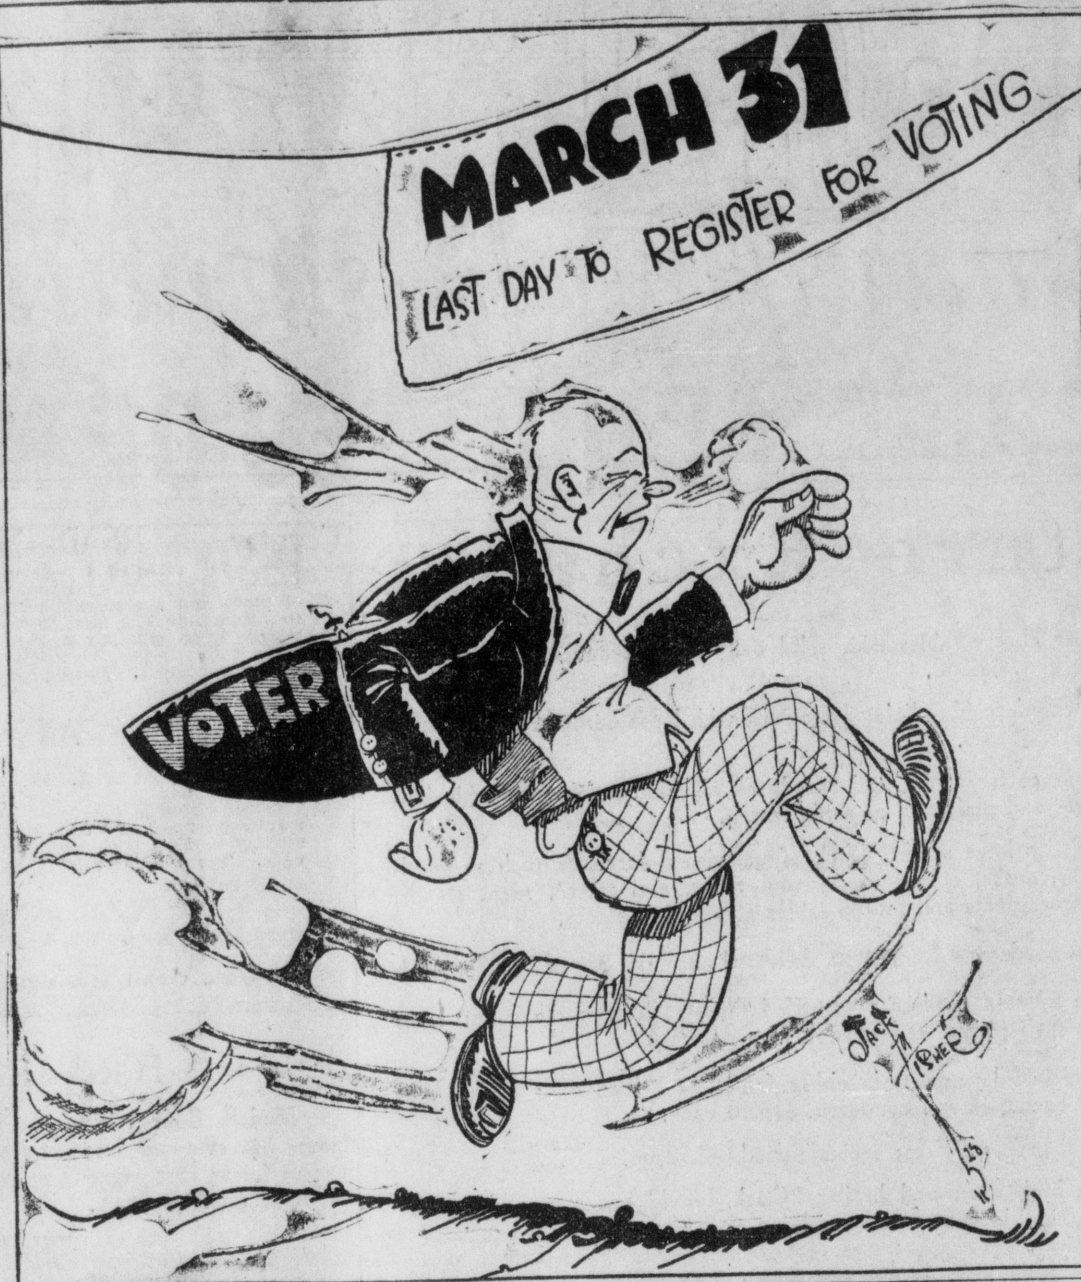

"That it does not," says John Henry heartily. "Mom, you're all right and I'm for you."

"Yes, you are, when it's against me," sniffed Matilda.

"All right darling. See you later," laughed John Henry.

M-m-m. Well, brothers are brutal. But they mean well. They help.

WHY READ?

Mr. Tunney's reputed as clever
With his mind as he is with his hooks,
He makes it his constant endeavor
To master the contents of books.
He reads modern novels in bunches
Buys weightier works by the set
And would rather be weak in his punches
Than slip with his grip of belles lettres.

But to keep in the pink of condition
And to pack a hard wallop and swing
Is better than much erudition
To a man who would shine in the ring.
The best informed English professor
Though the dean of his scholarly trade,
Will never become the possessor
Of the wad Mr. Tunney has made.

A youth might outlive in knowledge
Of prose composition and rhyme
The products of every college
Established since Socrates' time,
Yet a bruiser whose brow was so narrow
That his forehead impinged on his nose,
If his body was trained to the marrow
Could put him away with two blows.

Not for me to advise Mr. Tunney
A lad whom I highly revere,
But if I could assemble the money
That he can for year after year,
By steadily sticking to fighting
With all of my muscle and vim,
I would give over reading and writing
And spend my spare time in the gym.

Uncommon Sense

BY JOHN BLAKE

BE YOURSELF

Nearly all healthy children like to "show off" in the presence of strangers.

So do grown-ups, if the strangers are persons whom they admire.

Check over the list of your acquaintances. How many are really natural at all times?

The desire to impress is human and understandable. Most people crave esteem and if it is not given freely they will go after it.

Every stranger who comes along is fair game. Friends know us as we are. But perhaps the stranger can be made to see us in a rosier light.

So we strive to impress him in whatever manner is most effective.

Perhaps we have been keeping abreast of current literature lately. Good. We trot out all our reading before him.

I have never understood just why an intimate knowledge of current literature should entitle anybody to respect. Ability to read reflects no great credit on one.

But the fact remains that many believe that a familiarity with the latest best sellers endows them with a certain literary renown.

If we haven't read much lately, perhaps we cultivate an accent for the stranger's edification.

Or again we may casually list the important personages with whom we are on speaking terms. There are many different ways of trying to impress people.

The trouble with most of them is that they are so often transparent.

And when they are transparent they defeat their own ends. Let a new acquaintance suspect that you are laying yourself out to impress him and his respect for you immediately dwindles.

His respect for himself may rise somewhat. But he won't thank you for helping it rise.

I don't suppose more than one person out of four is really natural when meeting other persons.

Nearly everybody seems to have the impress complex. But merely being natural carries with it a certain distinction. If everybody else is trying to impress you can be different merely by being yourself.

And to be different is usually to be interesting. And to be interesting is to impress people. Perhaps you can impress others most effectively by being yourself.

LENIN AND GANDHI

The most interesting book that has come to my desk in many months is Rene Fulop-Miller's Lenin and Gandhi.

Its interest lies, not so much in Fulop-Miller's favorable or unfavorable comments on these two rebels extraordinary, as in the thousand and one stimulating thoughts and stirring explorations inspired in the reader's mind by seeing these two widely different men put side by side.

They are at once widely different and strangely alike.

The 320 pages of this volume are crowded with the studied manifestos and casual words of these two apostles of revolt, and one cannot watch them on dress parade and eavesdrop their more informal talk without coming to grips with the whole round of dilemmas that vex our generation.

Here are two men through whom the "dumb world of the disinherited" found voice for a time.

Both set out to be high-priests of the humble.

Both achieved a hypnotic power over their followers, who followed them as devotees follow a prophet.

Both achieved their sway over the crowd mind without the art of the orator that usually marks the master of the million-minded masses.

Lenin's weapon was the sword.

Gandhi's weapon was the spirit.

They flowered from different soils—Lenin from the soil of the peasant's cruelty; Gandhi from the soil of the saint's gentleness.

Lenin chose violence as an instrument for bringing about his dream.

Gandhi scorned violence as an instrument for bringing about his dream.

Lenin sought to emancipate Russia's millions through machinery.

Gandhi sought to emancipate India's millions from machinery.

Lenin dreamed of a Russia gone forward into the age of giant power.

Gandhi dreamed of an India gone backward into the age of the spinning wheel.

Lenin preached the submergence of the individual.

Gandhi preached the supremacy of the individual.

And both proved by their own dramatic leadership that, regardless of the social philosophy involved, the crowd is still dependent upon the powerful personal leader.

Despite their differences, both indicted the present age of Western civilization, and no defender of the status quo can afford to be ignorant of the forces that turned these two powerful personalities into critics of our civilization and of the forces that gave them power over the minds of so many human beings.

A Cloud of Witnesses

New York Times

Of the witnesses who appeared before the Senate committee yesterday Secretary Mellon was easily the best. He was clear, calm and frank—frank even to the point of admitting that he had given so little attention to the oil scandal that the name of Sinclair meant nothing suspicious to him in 1923.

When asked if his memory had not been jogged later, he told the committee that they had all the facts about the gift, or loan, of Sinclair bonds to Mr. Hays, and that the minor part which he had played in rejecting $50,000 worth of those bonds as security for a subscription was wholly "incidental."

It really added nothing to knowledge of the transaction. Chairman Butler volunteered evidence about the approach to him by Mr. Hays bearing Sinclair bonds. But in this case there was a refusal to accept them even more cavalier than that of Secretary Mellon. Only in Chicago, in Brooklyn and in Boston did the ingenious plan of Mr. Hays to induce Republicans to contribute under the aegis of Mr. Sinclair appear to have any success.

Mr. Hays himself did rather better as a witness than at his appearance last week. There was a touch of unbecoming humor in his appeal to his cross-examiner, Senator Walsh, not to be "technical."

If there could be anything more technical than the discrepancies between his testimony of 1924 and that which he has given later, it would take a Republican casuist, in dire straits, to produce it. Mr. Hays declares that he did not answer in 1924 as he did answer in 1925, because in the former year he did not consider the questions addressed to him about the Sinclair Committee to be "relevant."

Let us leave all such nice distinctions to logic-chopping lawyers. The main fact has now been established beyond all cavil. The former Republican Chairman solicited financial aid from Mr. Sinclair, and got it in the shape of bonds to the amount of about $300,000. But it would never do to enter such a subscription upon the party books. So the scheme was devised by Mr. Hays—a scheme, as it turned out, too clever by half—to keep the affair under cover by parceling and peddling out as many of the bonds as he could get to Republicans to accept. His own word was that they were to "use" the bonds. But it is plain that they were to be used to hide the Sinclair tracks and to deceive congress and the public about the real source of this large contribution. On that head no further evidence is needed. The witnesses at Washington are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses throughout the country, who are watching the proceedings with anxious interest, and who will find a way of recording their judgment. That it will go heavily against the former management of the Republican Party is as certain as death and taxes.

Barrie and the Authors

New York Times

Sir James M. Barrie has recently been elected president of the Society of Authors. In that office he has had illustrious predecessors.

In some respects it seems incongruous to group his name with theirs. Peter Pan would hardly be expected to be at home or well behaved in the company of Tennyson, Meredith and Thomas Hardy.

It is also difficult to think of Barrie having grown old enough to be reckoned among the venerables of literature. Still there is no denying the tale of years, and the Society of Authors must have known what they were about in asking Barrie to become their president. Perhaps they hoped, in view of the constant complaints about their poorly rewarded labors, that he might be able to give more of them, as they face their publishers, a "Twelve-Pound Look."

There is nothing flippant about the English Society of Authors. It has done a great deal of useful work for writers, particularly in the way of looking out for royalties and watching over publishing contracts. Yet it cannot be denied that the Society of Authors sometimes becomes a little self-satisfied and not so very arrogant. At the time of the memorial service for Hardy in Westminster Abbey the authors strongly protested because the dean had sent to them so small a number of tickets of admission—if we remember, it was only eighteen. No doubt eighteen hundred could have been absorbed. The alleged indignity to the writing guild was resented by Mr. Arnold Bennett, among others. But it was rejoined at the time by Mr. J. C. Squire that officially the dean of Westminster had no more reason to abase himself before the Society of Authors than he had before the Plumbers' union.
